LITTLE ROCK WINS AS REUNION CITY

Brigade of the Virginia Division. General Brown has his headquarters in the Battle House, and will head the Virginia column in the parade tomorrow.

The R. E. Lee Camp, of Richmond, has delightful headquarters at 101 St. Joseph Street, which is frequented by all Virginians, who receive a most cordial greeting from Captain D. A. Brown and Adjutant Stratton. All the Richmonders express themselves as greatly pleased with their visit to Mobile, and are well satisfied with the selection of General Gordon, of Tennessee, for commander-in-chief.

Lieutenant-Governor Elyson presented the annual report of the Confederate Memorial Association at the morning session of the veterans. He announced the gift by Virginia of a part of the Soldiers' Home property—estimated to be worth from $50,000 to $75,000—to the association for the purpose of erecting the Battle Abbey. He also announced the generous appropriation and offer of the city of Richmond, together with the active interest in the work of the association shown by all the Confederate organizations of Richmond. The Battle Abbey building will cost not less than $150,000, and the association has in its treasury more than $200,000. Work on the building will be commenced without delay. The announcement of what Virginia and Richmond has done for the Battle Abbey was received with applause.

Richmond in 1912. Many experienced veterans from prominent members of the veterans to the effect that the Battle Abbey should be dedicated in 1912, and that the reunion for that year should be held in Richmond.

Governor Elyson also presented a resolution, which was unanimously adopted, endorsing the action of the Confederate Surgeons' Association looking to the erection of a monument in the city of Richmond to Dr. S. P. Moore, the distinguished surgeon-general of the Confederate States.

It has been suggested that Chimborazo Park, where the Confederate hospital was erected during the war, would be a suitable place as a site for the monument.

Captain H. D. Coghill, of Caroline county, was chosen for secretary of the credentials committee, and Past Commander D. C. Richardson was appointed to represent Virginia on the committee on resolutions.

The Virginia delegation voted for Little Rock for the next reunion because they thought that Arkansas, as one of the Mississippi States, was entitled to the honor.

Mayor Richardson, of Richmond, and Miss Richardson are both receiving much attention. Captain Richardson today called on Mayor Lyons, of Mobile, and paid his respects. Judge and Mrs. George L. Chapman, staying with relatives in Mobile during the reunion.

General Thompson Brown, assisted by Adjutant W. B. Freeman, is dispensing old Virginia hospitality at headquarters in the Battle House. The Virginians have been treated very cordially, and have never been accorded a more generous welcome.

The mercury is down.

The barometer denotes continued unsettled weather—at least that was the condition at 6 P. M. yesterday.

You need a "cravenette" raincoat.

It will protect you from the rain and the chill as well.

Our raincoats for spring are of light-weight all-wool fabrics—cravenettes.

The process renders them rain-proof, yet porous, so that the air can circulate as freely as before.

Many patterns—selecting's easy.

$18 to $35.
For boys, $9.50 to $12.50.

Rubber Coats, $2.50 to $3.

Rubber Capes, $5 to $7.50.

Rubberized—the swell English coat—$12 to $35.

Underwear—

We can't claim to be partial to any particular make when we are showing more than twenty-five varieties.

PICK LONGWORTH TO BEAT HARMON

Ohio Republicans are grooming "Son-in-Law" for gubernatorial race.

SENTIMENT IS STRONG

Leaders See in Him Only Man Who Has Chance to Win.

Washington, D. C., April 27.—The boom for "Nick" Longworth as the Republican nominee for Governor of Ohio is looming up large.

That was the news brought from Ohio today by Representative Taylor, of the Columbus district. Mr. Taylor called at the White House for a few minutes, but on leaving said he did not care to discuss the general situation. He was willing, however, to say that of all the men mentioned for the governorship Representative Longworth is strongest in the Columbus district.

"There is a strong sentiment in my district and other parts of the State for Mr. Longworth," said Mr. Taylor. "The newspapers are taking the matter up and commending him as the man who could most likely defeat Governor Harmon, who will receive the Democratic nomination. Mr. Longworth is immensely popular in the State. He is from Hamilton county, the home of Governor Harmon, and could carry that county. He has a pleasing personality, is a good stumpster and would make the right sort of man."

According to information, the Longworth boom is proceeding without the sanction of the Cincinnati representative. In fact, he is strongly opposed to the idea and would not, it is stated, take the nomination. Unless he denounces it publicly, he is likely, though, the popular demand for him may force him into the fight, anyway.

Would Get Liberal Support.

He has a pleasing personality, is a good stumpster and would make the right sort of man."

Longworth is based upon a number of reasons. One is that he would have the support of the Liberal element of Ohio, which elected Harmon two years ago.

The other is that he has grown immensely in the estimation of Ohio people, solely by reason of his talent and achievements. He has passed from the stage of being the son of a wealthy mother and the son-in-law of Theodore Roosevelt, and is recognized by the people for his own abilities. His recent speech approving and upholding President Taft, without waiting to hear what would be the attitude of his father-in-law, has shown an independence of mind that has not been lost upon the voters of the State.

The strength of Mr. Longworth himself would be increased, it is believed, by the aid of Colonel Roosevelt, who would probably make speeches in favor of the Republican nominee. The combination in Ohio would then be Longworth Taft Roosevelt against Harmon and the Democrats.

Mr. Longworth's friends have been fighting against the talk of his nomination. They believe he has a political future of his own, independent of that of anybody else. As Governor of Ohio he would have a record of his own, owing to conditions. Mrs. Longworth also is said to be opposed to his taking the nomination if it should come his way. She wants him to remain in the House, and it is practically certain that he will do so.

Next to Mr. Longworth, the man most talked of for the Republican nomination is Judge Kincaid, of Toledo. One of the judges of the State court. His decisions against the local trust and along other lines have made him popular. The fight on Governor Harmon will be conducted along the lines that he is in sympathy with the corporations and is not in accord with general sentiment on this subject. Judge Kincaid would, it is said today, fill the bill for the other side.
